Obituary

Vickie Genell Slay Rollins was born on September 3, 1958 to Curtis Slay and Virginia Allen of Jackson, Mississippi. She received her formal education through the Orange, NJ school system, Morgan State University, and received her Bachelor of Arts from Everlasting Life Ministries Bible College in 1996 where Vickie became an ordained Pastor.

Vickie Rollins accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at a very young age. She rededicated her life to Christ in September 1985 with Everlasting Life Ministries where she served as a faithful member, mentor, and teacher until 1997. Vickie began to attend Christ Church in 1997 where she served on the worship team and the choir. Vickie truly loved the Lord and served in everything she did.

Vickie was employed with Realogy as a corporate lease administrator where she served dutifully for sixteen years. In her leisure Vickie enjoyed being a faithful servant of Christ, singing his gospel, serving on the worship team, choir, and mentoring or listening to anyone in need. The true joy of her life was spending time with her children, grandchildren, great grand and her family.

Vickie was truly blessed and had such an anointing. She was preceded in death by her loving father Curtis Slay. Vickie leaves to cherish her memory her loving mother Virginia Allen, two daughters, La-Keesha Stevens (Markeith Stevens son-in-law), La-Nita Thomas, Amirah Rollins, Anthony Rollins, one brother Darrell Rollins, two sisters, Seleka Williams and Tera Allen, three grandsons, Elijah Stevens, Zier Stevens, and Markeith Stevens Jr. and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
