Obituary

Al Guyton was born December 4, 1957 to Joe Guyton and Eva Windham. He was raised in Reform, Alabama with his three brothers surrounded by love from his parents and grandparents, John and Virginia Windham.

Al was educated in the Reform School system. After graduating high school he attended Brewer Community College to Study Law for two years, and then Shelton State Community College for welding. After college and holding several jobs in Alabama, he would relocate to New Jersey in his early thirties. He found joy in driving others. He worked at Holiday Inn Edison, NJ as a driver. He later obtained his CDL License to work as a bus driver, where he worked for Academy Bus Co. He was loved and adored by all of his passengers.

While working at Holiday Inn, he met the love of his life, Misha aka Michelle whom he lovingly called “Michelle” and after years of dating they were married. From this union Al gained two loving step-daughters, Yashica and Khalilah along with four grandchildren, Sajeeyah, Jihad, Khalil and Mya and a loving extended family that loved him dearly.

Al loved to cook and at family gatherings you would always find him behind the grill and just being the life of the party. He was very comical and he loved to talk and enjoy family time.

Al was loved and will dearly be missed. He leaves to mourn his loving wife, Misha aka Michelle; mother, Eva Windham; three brothers, Charles Atkins (Connie), Larry Guyton (Barbara) and Anthony Guyton; father and mother-in-law, Roy and Emma Terrell; one sister-in-law by marriage, Emma Lewis; one brother-in-law, Lindsey Walker (Maria); two step-daughters, Yashica Walker, Khalilah Kearney (George); four grandchildren, Sajeeyah, Jihad, Khalil and Mya; eight nieces, six nephews along with a host of great nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Don't Cry For Me Today

Don't cry for me today,
I wouldn't want it this way.
Be strong and smile,
for you will see me in a while.
I know you miss me,
but now in Heaven I will be.
Do not keep your sad face,
I am in a much better place.
Do not let your tears fall,
for I cannot wipe them all.
Yes, my life wasn't long.
But I'm begging you to be strong.
Live every moment as if it were your last,
I won't forget any memories that have passed.
Cherish life and love as I watch you from above.
As I remember all of the good things,
I come to see I have gotten my wings.
It is time to go and fly,
as your guardian angel I will try.
Don't cry for me today,
I'm on my way.
Soaring through the sky,
I watch all of you telling me goodbye.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
