Obituary

Cecily Antoinette Jenkins was granted her angel wings on July 17th, 2015 at the young age of twenty-five. Her final days were spent surrounded by family and friends that Cecily had touched in some small way throughout her memorable life.

Cecily's time on earth gave evidence to the notion that quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives. Cecily was born at St. Luke's Women's Hospital on February 11th, 1990 to her loving parents Sheila Jenkins and Prince Johnson.

As a young girl, Cecily attended P.S. 180, I.S. 172 and graduated from Mott Hall High School. Cecily then continued her education at New York Metropolitan College.

Cecily was a free-spirited, generous and outgoing person who had a close relationship with God. Cecily loved giving her services to the church as a child. Cecily was devoted to working within the New York City school system with children who she also touched in a profound way.

She is survived by: her beautiful baby, Cali Princess Coulibaly. Cecily leaves behind: her three sisters, Princess Jenkins, Kelsey Jenkins, and Kyli Jenkins; her aunts, Joyce Davis, Sherry Jenkins and Fannie Johnson; and her uncles, Charles Johnson and Robert Jenkins; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

Cecily was genuinely loved and will be deeply missed by many.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
