Reflections of Life

Ronald Steven White, fifty-five, died Friday, July 17 at Hackensack Medical Center with his family by his side. Ronald was born March 10, 1960, in Paterson, NJ to Clarence Jones Sr. and Gladys White.

In 1978, Ronald graduated from Passaic High School. He soon after moved to the sunny state of California, where he spent ten years there. After returning back to his home state, he soon moved to Jersey City and joined the Salvation Army Organization in 1989. Around 1995, he soon began working for Anheuser Busch Company as a truck driver and was known by his colleagues for his hard work and playful personality. Ronald was an avid basketball player and a big Philadelphia Eagles football fan. He was always talking to someone about everything from sports to politics to music. He enjoyed dancing, even though he couldn't and being with family. He was a very caring and giving man, always willing to help anyone in a time of need.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Gladys White and father, Clarence Jones Sr.

Ronald is survived by: his brothers, William Jones, Clarence Jones Jr.; sisters, Geraldine Jones, Lorraine Rines, Deborah Sumlin, Rosalind White, Ruthelle Jones, Janet Jones-Dobbins and Reva White-Ray; host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many, many friends.

The Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.

I thought of you today, but that is nothing new.
I thought of you yesterday,
and days before that too.
I think of you in silence, I often speak your name.
All I have are memories, and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake
from which I'll never part.
God has you in His arms, I have you in my heart.
