Obituary

Yvonne D. Jones was born to Maxwell King and Christine Jones on September 17, 1950 in Spring Lake, NC where she attended Cumberland County Public Schools. Lovingly referred to as Von, she was a determined young woman and instrumental in the upbringing of her younger siblings and later in life her sons. After graduating at the young age of 16, she migrated to Newark, NJ and accepted a position with the United States Postal Service where she was gainfully employed for 35 years. Because of her love for stylish hair, she later received her cosmetology license.

After retirement, Yvonne spent most of her time with her grandchildren, siblings and traveling up and down the east coast visiting with family and friends enjoying shopping, cookouts, and eating seafood. Most importantly, she gave her life to the Lord and became a member of Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church.

Yvonne became ill and spent several years fighting to hold on. She continued to smile and joke with others even when she was not feeling well. She was very strong willed. On July 17th, the Lord decided that she would suffer no more and so he called her home. She was preceded by her late son Iran Bernard Jones of Newark, NJ and leaves behind Edward Taquan Jones of Irvington, NJ, Fiancé James Smith, brothers, Theodore Eric Jones (India) of Spring Lake, NC, Malik Sullivan (Deidra) of Raleigh, NC, Anthony Quinn Jones (Victoria) of White Plains, MD, and preceded by Carzell Franklin Jones of Spring Lake, NC and sister Tammy Reynolds-Bowman (William) of Brandywine, MD, grandchildren Almeeka Jenkins, Taquan Jones, Amora Williams, great-grand Azaria Williams, nieces Shanee Sullivan and Kamaree Reynolds. Nephews Wesley Sullivan and Roland Reynolds and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

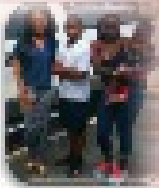

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
