Celebration of Life

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: — Ecclesiastes 3: 1

A time to be Born:

Carrie Louise Harvin was born on September 16, 1938 in Sumter, South Carolina. She was the youngest of three children born to the late Mr. Julius and Mrs. Fannie (Ramsey) Rembert.

A time to Learn:

Carrie Louise grew up in church and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She was baptized at Great File Chapels. She attended Sumter County school system where she graduated from Lincoln High School. She had a love for the Lord and sports. Her favorite extra curriculum activities included basketball, in which she was a member of Lincoln High School basketball team.

A time to Love:

Carrie Louise met and later married Roosevelt Harvin, Sr. From this union six children were born. After the birth of her children, Carrie along with her sister and their families migrated to New York to seek a better life. Carrie worked at the NYC Board of Education for over 20 years.

A time of Peace:

On Saturday, July 18th at 11:30 a.m. Carry departed this life and entered into eternal rest with the Lord. She is preceded in death by her beloved parents, (Mr. & Mrs. Rembert), her son, (Frank Harvin), her daughter, (Levern Harvin) and grandson, (Reginald Foster).

A time to Weep:

She leaves to cherish in her memories; two daughters, Christine Warner (son-in-law, Greg Warner) and Essie Mae Harvin; two sons, Roosevelt Harvin, Jr. and Melvin Harvin; one sister, Mary Jane Hamilton; one brother, Julius Rembert (sister-in-law, Henrietta Rembert); one aunt, Ellen Maple also known as Tit; nine grand kids, eleven great-grand kids, a host of nieces, nephews, adopted relatives, friends and her best friend, Maxine Davis.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. — Matthew 5:4

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
