Obituary

Theresa Washington was born July 11, 1913 in Charleston, South Carolina. After finishing high school, she traveled to New York City seeking employment and social opportunity. She worked for the Board of Education until she retired.

Theresa met Roy Washington and the two were married in 1937. The two enjoyed 32 years together, until she became a widow. This marriage produced three daughters, Barbra, Dolores and Doris.

Theresa had a love for playing the piano. She traveled to different parts of the world. She has won multiple trophies around the world playing the card game Bridge.

Theresa was a worthy Matron of the Eastern Star Prince Hall Masonic Lodge. Ms. Washington was stern, wise and a confident woman, mother and friend.

Theresa is survived by: two daughters, Barbra and Dolores; seven grandchildren, Dwayna, Taunya, Shawn, Robert, Theresa, Darryl and Tawana. She leaves fourteen great grandchildren and three great, great grandchildren.

She lived a full and loving life. She will be missed.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
