Obituary

Hason K. Burton was born on April 17, 1972, Newark, New Jersey. He was the only child born to Christine Eve Burton. He departed this life Saturday, July 25, 2015 at Cooper's Hospital, Camden, New Jersey.

Hason received his formal education in the Newark school system. He was a 1990 graduate of Essex County Vocational High School. Later, Hason attended Smith & Solomon Truck Driving School where he received his commercial driver's license.

In 1997, Hason began working for the State of New Jersey. He eventually relocated to South Jersey to pursue a better life for himself and his family. He remained an employee of the State until the time of his passing.

Hason met Christine White in 1994 and they were married in 2004.

Hason was affectionately known as "Ace", "Has", "Big Man" and "Burt". His wife's favorite nickname was "Son".

Hason was a quiet man. He loved cars, laughing and old school music.

Hason leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife and best friend, Christine W. Burton; daughter, Ashley N. White; mother, Christine E. Burton; grandmother, Eunice Burton; aunts, Marie Candies, Carolyn Burton and Omelia Ponder; mother-in-law, Geraldine White; sister-in-law, Darlene Burger and brother-in-law, Darryl Burger; nephews, Jamar and Jamil Burger; first cousins, Morris, Nicole, Leon, Wesley and William; and a host of other relatives and many dear friends.

Beyond The Sunset

Should you go first and I remain to walk the road alone, I'll live in memories garden dear, with happy days we've known In spring I'll wait for roses red, when faded, the lilacs blue. In early fall when brown leaves fall, I'll catch a glimpse of you.

Should you go first and I remain, for battle to be fought each thing you've touched along the way will be a hallowed spot. I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile though blindly I may grope, The memory of your helping hand will buoy me on with hope.

Should you go first and I remain, one thing I'll have you do: Walk slowly down that long long path, for soon one day I'll follow you. I want to know each step you take, so I may take the same. For someday down that lonely road you'll hear me call your name.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You,
Whatever the part.
