Obituary

Roosevelt Bennett was born December 27, 1957 in Newark, NJ to the late Lafrances and Adam Bennett.

Roosevelt spent most of his childhood in Newark and Orange NJ, where he completed his early education. In 2005, Roosevelt started working as a launderette taking care of linens for small and big businesses in Newark, NJ. He continued to work there until 2007. In 2010, Roosevelt started working as a construction worker until his passing in July 2015.

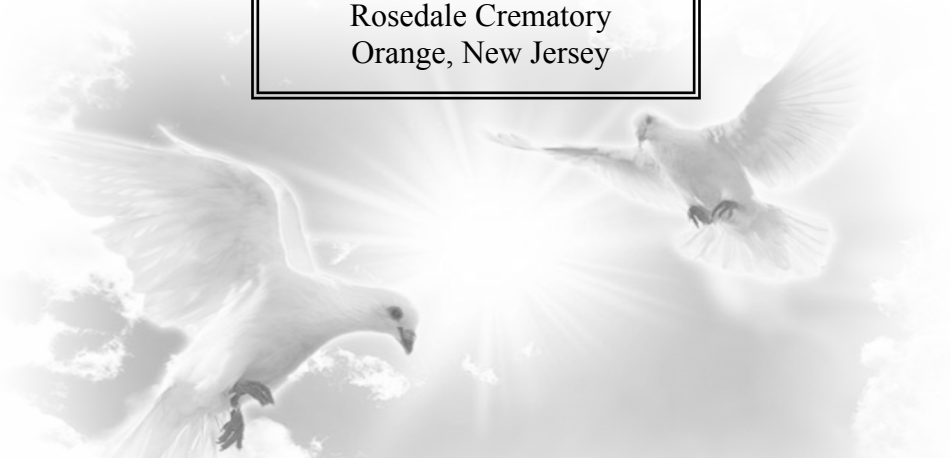

Roosevelt was a kind man with a big heart, who cared about others before himself. He always put family first and would do his best to make others happy. He was a humble, caring, happy, loving and selfless man who will be missed.

Roosevelt Bennett was adored, admired, and loved by many. Among those left to cherish his memory are his fiancée, Tammie Brown; Stepdaughters Taniqua Martin, Shanee, Nadirah, and Ebony Montgomery; Grandchildren E'lyse, Tazai, Shi'Miar, Azi Montgomery, Sykurr, Sa'Nayah and Sa'Nijah Mays; Sisters Alfreda Bennett and Rosemarie Wilson; Brothers Adam, Jesse, Kenneth and Joseph Bennett; along with a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
