Obituary

Gifty A. Hevi, 40, of Sussex, died unexpectedly on July 25, 2015, when she was on vacation in Pennsylvania. She was born on October 2, 1974 in Accra, Ghana, the daughter of Charles Boye Codjoe and Vida Love Acheampong.

Even though she received her high school certificate from Yikrosee in Ghana. She also obtained her GED in East Orange, New Jersey. She was employed with a company in Parsippany, New Jersey, by the name Bionet as a Quality Control Inspector for twenty years.

Gifty was married to Wisdom Hevi from 1999 until her sudden death.

She loved helping people and became a shining star everywhere she went. She didn't play with church activities and never missed church attendance for any reason.

She left behind to cherish her memories: her four children, Emmanuel Hevi 13, Patience Hevi, Peace Hevi 9 and Michael Hevi 6; husband; father; six sisters, Alice Aequaye, Beatrice Aequaye, Rose Barnor, Ellen Mausah, Diana Codjoe and Sussuana Larbi; four brothers, Francis Boye-Codjoe, Charles Boye-Codjoe, Robert Boye-Codjoe and Daniel Boye-Codjoe; and a host of other relatives and friends.

North Hardyston Cemetery

Our mother was a loving and caring person. She was very active in the community and took us to all our school activities, football, basketball, lacrosse and dancing. Our mother had always been there for us. She loved us so much that she never leave home without us. That was why she died in Pennsylvania instead of New Jersey because we had school activities there and we had to be there. Mama we missed you already and believe we can be together again some day.

From her Children

My sister Adjor, that's what I called her, was a gentle hearted soul, whose sole purpose in life was to make people around her happy. She was generous, loving, caring and a very good mother for that matter. She loved the Lord and tried her best to spread the good news wherever she went. Adjor, Adjor, Adjor, may your gentle soul rest in the bosom of the Almighty.

Her sister, Rose Barnor

My auntie, mother and sister to everyone said things I won't forget. She say things like, "what a shame, it's a beautiful day (even though it was raining or snowing)." My auntie would be missed dearly. We are celebrating the amazing life that she lived. That's all we are going to remember, and not the pain of her being taken away from us, because she made us smile even in our worse days.

From her niece-Gloria Barnor

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
