Obituary

Beverly Julia Morris was born on November 21, 1967 in Harlem, New York to Julia Morris and the late Chauncey Alston. She was the sixth of seven children.

Beverly aka “Bev” was affectionately known as “Baquita” to her 131 Street family had departed this earthly life on Tuesday, August 4, 2015 at Presbyterian Hospital after a brief illness.

Bev as we called her attended Washington Irvington High School in New York City. She attended and was a member of the House of God Church with her sisters, Sheila Morris Shockley and Tia Rock Morris in Manhattan as a child and at the age of twelve, she received the baptism of the Holy Ghost under the leadership of General Elder Ernestine Funches. Years later, Bev left the church but never left God.

Bev aka “Baquita” that name was given to her by her favorite cousin, Phyllis Horne. She loved to cook for the annual 131st block parties and always fed everyone that was hungry especially the children. Everyone that came in contact with her fell in love with her but rest assure she would quickly put you in your place if you got out of line. Bev knew that she didn’t have long so she rekindled her relationship with God and gave her life back to the Lord.

Bev was dearly loved and will be missed. She leaves to cherish her memories: her only son, Tyrell P. Morris, Tanya, her granddaughter, Tierra “Nu-Nu” Morris and grandson, Tyrell Morris, Jr. “Bubbles”; her mother, Julia Morris, favorite aunt, Mavis Morris, Dottie Leak, her sisters, Annette Watson (Warren Sr.), Sheila Shockley (Greg), Matilda (deceased), brothers, Ronald Morris, Bernard Morris (Robin), Chauncey Shor Morris (Tia), nieces, Angela, Shadae, Lenora, Carla, Briya, Tiana, Shana, Kenya, Alana, Niya, Naveah, Marie, Erin, Priscilla. Precious Memories

Come To Me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
