Obituary

Barbara Ann Delegal was born on April 8, 1942 to the late Henry and Ida Blocker of Graniteville, South Carolina. She passed away peacefully on Tuesday, August 4, 2015 at the Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City, New York.

Her final days were spent surrounded by family and friends that she touched in a special way throughout her memorable life.

Professing her faith, she accepted Christ as her Savior and was baptized at Mount Moriah Baptist Church in New York City, New York. She lived out her Christian faith by touching the lives of many people with her smile, and generosity, while maintaining her trademark sense of humor. She was first united in Holy Matrimony to Fred Daugherty and to this union three children were born: Marcus, Raymond, and Robbin Daugherty. She remarried the late Christopher Delegal, they were married for 26 years.

She was educated in the New York City Public School system. She graduated from the Yorkville Vocational High School. She was an avid reader and had a great love for dancing, listening to music, art and traveling. Barbara worked as a Data Entry Inputer for the H.W. Wilson Company.

Barbara has been many things to many people: wife, mother, grandmother, friend, etc. Across all of these roles, she exemplified the very essence of what a woman of God should be. Her Christ-like love could fill a room, and yet with God's help, she was always as tough as the circumstances called for.

She loved and worshipped the Lord. She loved her family, friends, and neighbors. Her strength, patience, and loving kindness will be greatly missed.

She is survived by three children: Marcus and Raymond Daugherty of Bronx, New York and Robbin Daugherty of New York City, New York; two granddaughters, Brianna and Mia Daugherty; a special childhood friend, Sandra Diggs; and a host of other friends and relatives.

We celebrate her life with you today, and we look forward to the day when we will be reunited with her at the pearly gates of glory.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me

I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,

a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
