Obituary

Daniel D. Scott was born on the 5th of September 1939 to Josephine Fitzgerald-Scott, in the city of New York, borough Manhattan.

He was educated in the schools of New York before reaching adulthood. After which he joined the Army to be a radar repairman until he was honorably discharged in August of 1961. Furthermore, he then sold real estate until he retired in 1985.

Daniel or “Donald” as many knew him greatly enjoyed traveling and spending time with his family. As a member of the Nor-Jer Mon, he helped raise funds for the communities of New Jersey.

On Friday, August 7, 2015, he departed this life at his home in South Orange, NJ.

He is survived by his loving sons, and family.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see,
the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see,
the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Another Time

No need to cry
Together we are strong
As our love will last forever

Embers burn to believe our dreams.
With clear focus
I thank you for the moments and blessings

Because of you I am strong;
Face of a mountain.
Awaiting another time when we will see eye to eye again.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You,
Whatever the part.
