Obituary

Luevina Smith was born April 24, 1935 in Robersonville, North Carolina to the late Herman Jasper Whitfield and Olivia Spruill Whitfield. She was educated in the Martin County Public School System. Luevina accepted Christ as her personal savior at an early age at the Belmont Baptist Church. In her later years, she became an active member of Child's Memorial Temple, Church of God In Christ where she attended faithfully until her health failed.

In 1957, Luevina moved to New York, New York, it was there that she met, fell in love, and married the late Lumas L. Smith, Sr. From this union three children were born, Lumas Jr., Kenneth, and Michelle. She loved being the mother of her children, exposing them to as much as possible. There was nothing she would not do for them, no such things as above and beyond when it came to them, but nothing compared to the love and bond she shared with her grandchildren. She went to great lengths to provide, protect and spoil them. Luevina was a friendly and easygoing person. She could strike up a conversation that would last seemed like forever, especially to her family.

Luevina was an angel here on earth, she heard her Heavenly Father call her name on Tuesday, August 4, 2015 and she peacefully went to her new mansion. Luevina is preceded in death by her husband, Lumas Smith, Sr., parents, (Herman and Olivia Whitfield), brothers, (Cecil, Leo, Elmer Jr. and Julius). She leaves to carry on her legacy: two sons, Lumas (Linda) and Kenneth (Glenda); one daughter, Michelle (Derrick); six grandchildren, Kenneth Jr., Ebony, Shakira, Nicole, Jalen, and Dasean; brother, Robert (Eleanor); and sister, Patricia (Thomas); two great grandchildren, Anaya and MacKenzey; sister-in-law, Jean; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

FOREVER MOMMA

*We'll never forget you-How could we, some of our happiest times
And funniest moments, have been with you*

*We've talked and enjoyed so much, with each other that nothing
Could ever take away, those special memories*

*We're so thankful we have them, and we're so thankful to you
For being part of our thoughts, and we'll always remember you*

With Love, Lumas, Kenneth and Michelle

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
