Obituary

Lisa White-Milom 55, was born on September 4, 1959 at Harlem Hospital Center in New York City. She was the beloved daughter of Shirley White and Phillip White.

Lisa attended school in New York City her entire childhood. She attended PS 100, following St. Marks the Evangelist and last Food and Maritime High School where she graduated.

Lisa dedicated twenty-five years of service at Harlem Hospital Center. Starting out as a temp worker, Lisa's determination quickly secured her a permanent position as a dietary aid.

She was a faithful member of First Corinthian Baptist Church.

Lisa was a loving mother who shared two sons, James and Jerrell with James Vernon. Later on Lisa met her true love, Robert Milom. Their union lasted for sixteen years until she was then called home to the Lord. Lisa departed this life on August 11, 2015 at Calvary Hospital in Bronx, New York with her devoted and loving husband, Robert Milom by her side.

Lisa was a loving and vibrant woman, who was loved and cherished by many.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Robert Milom; two sons, James and Jerrell White; step daughter, Larhonda Smalls; four grandchildren, Janelle, Jamoni, Jerrell Jr. and Jailyynn; mother, Shirley White; two sisters, Geraldine and Kim; two brothers, Phillip and Darryl; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

My Wife, the life that God gave us, He put women here for us to chose a wife. I chose Mrs. Lisa M. Milom to be my wife for the rest of my life. With love and respect, always and forever I love you (RIP)

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free!*
