Obituary

Angela Fitch was born on March 29, 1957 in Manhattan, New York to the Late Corine Fitch (nee Williams) and James Henry Fitch. Her family moved to Jersey City when she was a child.

Angela graduated from Ferris High School and later graduated from The Taylor Business School. She also studied Public Policy at St. Peter's College now St. Peter's University. Angela earned her A+ Certification for Computer Technician at PC Tech Computer Training School. Most recently she attended and graduated from Rising Tide Capital Business Academy and launched her own business, Freedom From Frenzy Computer Services. She was employed at The Hudson County Urban League for many years, as a Manager, in the Education and Training Department.

Angela was baptized as a child member at Bethesda Baptist Church in Jersey City, NJ. She later became a member of St. Matthews Lutheran Church in Jersey City and more recently attended the Waterfront Community Church.

Angela had a heart of gold and helped many people in any way she could. She was active in the NAACP, Doors of Hope Community Prison Ministry, Civics for the Emerging Activist, and Democratic Committee work. Her home was open to many who needed a place of refuge. She loved to cook and enjoyed family gatherings. Angela loved people and will be missed by many.

Angela was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers Jesse Jones, Willie Jones, Clarence Jerome Fitch and one sister, Selena Joyce Fitch.

She is survived by two sons, Darian Asmar Fitch and Marcus Bernard Fitch, one grandson, Damiere Fitch, three siblings Mona Fitch-Elliot (Vernon), Marcella Fitch, Anita Lewis (Wesley). She leaves behind a whole host of nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends who love her dearly.

Commendation/Sending

Recessional

*Through all the trails and tribulation
there is jubilation, joy.
Through all the frustration
there is concentration, focus.
Through all the affliction
there is conviction, assurance.
No way, some might say,
unless it is okay and they find their way.
To be not dismay for a brighter day!*

*Lovingly Submitted,
From Your Sons*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You,
Whatever the part.
