Obituary

On Monday, August 10, 2015 at her home in Maplewood, God called for our beloved Herline.

Herline Marcel Wah was born on December 12, 1919 to Helene and Isambert Marcel in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. As a teenage girl, she immigrated to Brooklyn, New York with her parents. After school she married her first husband, Lyonel Jn Pierre and lives in Michigan. They have a daughter named Claudia.

After her divorce she moved to New Jersey and remarried to Jean-Claude Wah and settled in Maplewood.

She had a successful career at Teva Pharmaceutical Company where she worked for twenty-nine years. Herline was a kind and compassionate person who touched the lives of so many people. She was always available to help others regardless their circumstances.

She was adored, admired and respected by many. Among those left to cherish her memory are her husband, Jean-Claude Wah; her daughter, Claudia Jean Pierre. She is also survived by her loving sisters, Yolande, Bonhomme, Madeleine Marcel, Renee Marcel, Mimose Paul; her brothers, Georges and Gaston Marcel; her brothers-in-law, Antonio and Edgar Wah; sisters-in-law, Bernadette Wah, Anne-Marie Mathurin and Kem-Choy Khawly; and a host of nieces and nephews; her cousins, Louise Milceus and Yolene Milfort, other family members and countless friends who will miss her dearly.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Helene and Isambert Marcel.

Psalm 6

O Lord, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am weak:

O Lord, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O Lord, how long?

Return, O Lord, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

For in death there is no remembrance of thee:

in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim;

I water my couch with my tears.

Mine eye is consumed because of grief;

it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity;

for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

The Lord hath heard my supplication;

the Lord will receive my prayer.

Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed:

let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
