Obituary

After a brief illness, our beloved Pauline Frances Paige, 80, died peacefully surrounded by her family on August 30, 2015 in Newark, NJ.

Pauline was born January 9, 1935 in King and Queen County, Virginia to father, James Edward Paige and mother, Elizabeth Mary Lee-Paige. An only child of the union, Pauline, never the less, grew up in a large, loving family of aunts, uncles and cousins.

Herself a mother of seven, Pauline at times balanced family with her studies at Essex County College and various jobs. She formed lasting friendships and spoke most often of her work at the then Newark Airport and Ball Glass where she was an employee for more than twenty years.

An inveterate traveler with a keen wit, Pauline had at least once shown up on the doorstep of her youngest daughter's Colorado home, clutching a sales circular, declaring she was in town for the local sales event.

Our Beloved is survived by her children: Samuel E. Paige, Natalie E. Brown, Cassandra Mallory, Beverly L. Brown and Yvonne C. Brown as well as her 13 grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren and 3 great great grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents and her sons, Darryl Arthur and Blair Eugene Brown.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
