On June 9, 1962 in Brooklyn, New York a warrior was born, Lance Blinker. Third born child to the late Eva Mae Blinker and James Tyrone Blinker, Sr. His birthplace and upbringing molded him to be bold and fearless. A graduate of Boys and Girls H.S., Lance received a B.A. in political science from Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio. He pursued graduate studies at Hunter College and Carnegie Mellon University.

Most who knew Lance was impressed with his intellect, which he demonstrated when watching the TV show, Jeopardy, answering most of the questions correctly. His knowledge, dedication, and passion for helping others led him to becoming a social worker and a New York State Parole Officer.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
