Obituary

Willene Dupree was born February 16, 1939 to Hannah Bell Lee and Carter Lee of Camden, South Carolina. She was born in Kershaw County of South Carolina.

She graduated from Jackson High School. She worked thirty years for Days Inn Hotel and during that time she was also a Union Delegate. She was a member of Carolina Baptist Church in her younger years and later became a member of Convent Baptist Church in New York City.

Willene Dupree was a visionary who was very passionate about education and the importance of family. So much so that she started an education fund for the children of the family that will prayerfully be continued by her successors. She had an open door policy for any family member in need. She shared the family history to any family member willing to listen, educating us all on our roots and heritage.

She was preceded in death by her son, Curtis Dupree, brothers, Joseph Lee (Gladys Lee), Johnny Lee (Inez Lee), James Lee, and sister, Estell Alston.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Daisy Goodwin (Jerome Goodwin); granddaughter, Fallon Adonai; great granddaughter, Nadia Adonai of North Carolina; sister, Ethel Wells of New York; brother, Hammie Lee (Evelyn Lee) of Florida; loving and faithful nieces, Beatrice Wallace and Yvonne Phinazee; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

God Looked Around His Garden

God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful. He always takes the best. He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine". It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Acknowledgement

Family wishes to acknowledge your expression of love, concern, and kindness shown during this time of bereavement. May God richly bless each of you.
