Obituary

Dwayne Dant'a Williams was born on August 12, 1991 at Orange Memorial Hospital in Orange, NJ to Dorjorne Yolonda Williams.

Dwayne attended Orange and East Orange School Districts. At the age of twelve, while attending Washington Academy of East Orange, Dwayne was accepted to pilot school with a full scholarship. He won this scholarship by coming in first place in a district wide 6th grade essay competition.

Dwayne was never your average child, he displayed this in his essay, when he wrote about imagining being thousands of feet in the air and the world being so small. This world was definitely not big enough for a person with the imagination as big as Dwayne. As a kid, he would ask his mother questions like "ma how do you think the stars got into the sky". He was always curious and thinking beyond what the eyes can see. He carried this mentality and personality throughout his adult life.

He always showed love and respect towards his family and friends that he gained through the years. Dwayne was a very loyal, caring and loving person who got along with most. He left an impact on everyone that knew him. Dwayne was a very independent person rarely relying on anyone and proud of his accomplishments. Dwayne was dearly loved by his family and friends.

He leaves behind: his mother, Dorjorne Williams; his older sister, Danae Williams; two younger brothers, Yameen Williams and Dy-Juan Johnson; his uncle, Dant'a Williams; aunts, Deliah Williams, Dajuan Williams, Sophia Mix and Cynthia Simpson; close cousins that were more like his brothers, Amir, Ali and Ajjuan Williams; close cousins that were more like his sisters, Stepfonie Durr and Kyyana Pulyado; very close friends that were like sisters, Talia Chambers and Briana Barr; and a host of great aunts, great uncles, cousins and friends that loved him dearly.

Dwayne was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Inez Williams and his first cousin, Anthony Williams, as well as many other family members.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
