Obituary

Ms. Susie Mae Foster was born October 12, 1952 to the late Jessie and Annie Foster in Americus, Georgia.

Susie was educated in the Americus and Sumter County School system. She moved to New York City at an early age and later graduated from Charles Hughes High School. She later received a certificate in Childhood Development from Global Business Institute in the early 80's. She then went to work for the Board of Education for twenty-three years until God called her home.

Susie leaves to cherish her loving memories: her devoted partner, Daniel McThomas; one devoted daughter, Lacheryl Foster Kumordzie; three brothers, Gene Foster (Mary), Eddie Foster (Marie) of New York City and Jessie Foster (Shirley) of St. Louis, MO; four sisters, Margaret James (Blue), Ella Thomas (Willie), Maye Foster of New York City and Nellie Kendricks of Englewood, NJ; "Twin Brother", (Henry Foster). She was the mother and god-mother to many with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends; and a special devoted friend, Mrs. Thomas.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
