Upon graduating from high school in 1943, she relocated to Leonia, NJ with her mother and sisters, Serlener Mae (Gannaway) Trival and Duval Gannaway. She then returned to North Carolina to attend Winston Salem Teacher's College where she graduated with a B.S in 1947. She then attended graduate school at AT&T College in Greensboro, NC in 1953.

In 1948 she married David Young in Cleveland Ohio, and gave birth to her first child, Ronald Young in 1949. In 1953, Margaret, David and their growing family moved back to Leonia, NJ where they became members of Galilee down by the brook where the Rev. Walter Taylor was the pastor. They eventually laid roots in Englewood, NJ and in 1958, Margaret gave birth to her third and final child, June Linelle. In addition to being a devoted wife and mother, Margaret taught as a teacher in the Englewood, Teaneck, and Paterson public school system. # Come To Me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
