OBITUARY

Lowell Andrew McEntire was the third of eight children born on February 9, 1951 to Pernell and Therion McEntire (who preceded him in death).

Born in Rutherfordton, North Carolina, Lowell spent his early years of growth in Forest City, North Carolina attending Dunbar Elementary and Carver High School. In addition, he completed a program in electrical engineering at the Bronx O.I.C. in the seventies which led to a position at Metro-North/MTA. He also worked for the Salvation Army providing services for residents related to his trade. His last position before retirement was with the Fiedler Companies Inc., Bronx, New York. Most of his adult life was spent in New York, a city he so loved. He made many friends, some he's known for forty years, like "Stick".

He loved to sing and dance, sometimes it seemed like he would never stop. That voice, that spirit will truly be missed. Lowell was opinionated which led to many discussions and debates and always dropping his pearls of wisdom. The things most cherished in his life was his children and grandchildren.

On September 8, 2015, he was called to rest, no more pain, no more suffering. We will await the day until we see him again.

Lowell left a special memory in the hearts of all that knew him: his daughters, Pam, Tina, Paula and Janaan; his sons, Tarik and Karim; his brothers and sisters, Brenda, Lynette, Olydia, Otis, Stanley and Trebra; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, friends and the two people he trusted with his life, Bridget; his long-time girlfriend and Jackie, the mother of his sons.

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
