Obituary

Salina R. Hill was born on May 10, 1951 to Louis Griffin and Daisy B. Moss.

Salina was born and raised in Hackensack, New Jersey where she attended Hackensack High School and graduated. Salina then went on to work at Whigams Factory alongside her sisters.

Salina then traveled many places finally residing in Detroit, Michigan, where she met her late husband, Edward T. Hill. They were married in 1992.

After a long battle with lung cancer, Salina departed this life on the morning of September 15, 2015.

She leaves to cherish her memory: twelve siblings, Sally Fields, Lee Domino, Igene Drakeford (deceased), Patty Griffin, Nora Griffin, Louis Griffin, Kurt Griffin, Starling Griffin, Norman Griffin, Ophela Griffin (deceased) and Frank Griffin; six children, Lolita and Dynal Griffin, Marcus, Turann, Christian and Isaac Hill; three grandchildren, Dynal, Jr., D'ahri and D'aijzal Griffin; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband and parents

To My Loved Ones

No reason for sorrow, no reason to cry. Look toward tomorrow and I'll tell you why my memories of you and yours of me are filled with love and laughter forever. You'll see no reason to worry, nor question God as to why you have lost me. No reason to say goodbye.

It's time for my journey home, a beautiful and peaceful trip that I must make alone. So just be strong and keep a smile, we'll only be apart for a little while. The love I've known is a very special part, the love I've shown came straight from the heart.

I leave you now to go on my way to a wonderful place where we'll be together someday. No reason at all as you can see. I'm with my Lord.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the
