Obituary

Darrin “Dee” Collins was born on March 25, 1969 to Danny Collins, and the late Irene Phillips Collins. “Dee” as everyone knew him, is survived by his two children, Amber D. Alston, and Demetrice Covington. Darrin also had one granddaughter, Mikaylay Covington and his only sibling his twin sister, Sharon Collins. Darrin also leaves to cherish his memory step father, Robert Lewis, aunts, uncles, great aunts, great uncles, and a slew of cousins. Darrin “Dee” Collins worked several jobs during his adult life to include a bail bondsmen, a car repossession agent, and his most recent job a security officer at Newark City Morgue.

Darrin “Dee” Collins was known best for being a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan and a collector of Invicta watches. Whether it was football season or basketball season you were bound to see Darrin in something related to the Dallas Cowboys along with a matching Invicta watch.

To know Darrin was to love him. He was a great person to be around. He would brighten your day one minute and the next minute would say, “I just gotta lie.” Although Darrin is no longer with us physically we will all be able to reminisce his great memories.

Darrin leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Amber D. Alston, and Demetrice Covington; granddaughter, Mikaylay Covington; twin sister, Sharon Collins; father, Danny Collins; step father, Robert Lewis; aunts, uncles, great aunts, great uncles, and a slew of cousins.

Life Is But A Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude to all those who have supported us during this time of loss.
