Alex Andrews was born January 5, 1949 in Norlina, North Carolina to the late Moses Andrews, Sr. and Gladys B. Andrews.

Alex grew up on a farm as a sharecropper while he attended North Side Elementary School and Wise High School. Alex came to New Jersey where he met his wife, Dorothy Barron and they got married April 5, 1969. He worked at Davis-Grande Trucking Company in North Bergen until he retired. During his retirement he enjoyed fishing and Sunday's at the racetrack.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Dorothy Andrews and their four children, Orlando Andrews, Dion Andrews and his wife, Danielle Andrews, Nicole Andrews-Fuller and her husband, Ki-Kiea S. Fuller, Sr., and Norman Andrews and his wife, Darlena Johnson-Andrews; nine grandchildren, Daneyah, Shameya, Princess, D'Anna, Dion Jr., Chanel, Joseph, Jarelle, and Jahida; his father-in-law, Joe Barron, Sr.; five sisters, Mattie Dortch, Hattie Mozell, Gladys Andrews, Carolyn Andrews, and Shirley Andrews; three sisters-in-law, Yvonne Andrews, Dorothy Andrews and Sylvia Barron-Phipps; three brothers-in-law, Barry Mozell, Joe Barron, Jr., and James Phipps; his godson, Alexander G. Andrews and his wife, Kaietha Coston-Andrews; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Alex was the last of the male siblings to leave us and we would like to remember his siblings that was called home before him; Robert Lee Andrews and his wife, Edna Andrews, Emma Anderson and her husband, John C. Anderson, Lula Campbell and her husband, John Campbell, Moses Andrews, Jr., George Dortch, Mildred Garris and her husband, Hayward Garris, and James Andrews.

For You Daddy

*There's no one like you Daddy
And many would say it's true
If there was anyone who told it like it was
That someone would be you
You always kept me laughing
With the funny things you said
Even when you thought I wasn't listening
It always stayed in my head
I'll always love you daddy
You'll always be a part of me
Cause like you've always said
"The fruit don't fall far from the tree".*

Eternal Love from your Daughter, Nicole Belinda Andrews-Fuller

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
