Obituary

Barbara Ann Caldwell-Page born on February 1, 1947 to the parents, Willie Frank Caldwell and Nora Bell Caldwell in Rock Hill, SC.

"Bobbie Ann" as everyone called her, received her education in the Rock Hill, SC public school system. After graduating, Bobbie Ann followed her big sister and cousin/sister and moved to Newark, NJ. There is where she met John A. Page whom she later married and formed a union.

Bobbie Ann loved praising God! and GOSPEL MUSIC! You could catch her singing "FIX IT JESUS" while cooking her traditionally Sunday Dinners. She was a very active member of the church. She served as a Usher at her church and with the New Hope Missionary Baptist Association. She was very family oriented. She would always see her at every birthday, graduation or family function given.

Barbara Ann was preceded by death by her two children Richard Caldwell and Sharon "PUNKIN" Caldwell-Page and two brothers Max and Herman Caldwell.

Barbara Ann leaves to cherish her loving memories: her devoted daughter Christa "Tweetie" Page, four-grandchildren, Rahshan "Shawn" McLendon, Shakeerah King, Najiyah Wooden and Jada Page; Six Brothers; Willie "Bo" (Bernice) Caldwell, Clifford (Ann) Caldwell, Maynard (Mattie) Caldwell, Roddey (Mae) Caldwell, Baron Caldwell, Dennis Caldwell, five sisters; Parthenia (Lacey) Jones, Claretta King, Valerie (Milton) Brownlee, Marilyn Caldwell-Drake and Brooklisa Hayman and God daughter, Glenda Tappins-Britton.

Special friends Eddy Tappins, and Nephew/Son Jason A. Caldwell and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins church family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
