Theo attended Tabernacle Outreach Ministry in Newark, NJ with his mother, grandmother, aunt and other family members and had a strong belief on the Christian faith. He would have conversations with his cousins about his belief that there is a heaven and a hell. Theo's life on this earth was brief and one his family will forever miss.

Theo had a brilliant mind and had dreams to do great things. He enjoyed being among his families even though he would not say much. He always had a smile on his face whenever you saw him, and he thought life was to be enjoyed. Music was a big part of his life and the expression of a relaxed mood would come over him once his music was playing. He also enjoyed playing his video games. Theo enjoyed being with his cousins and was a fun and loving person during their interactions. He also enjoyed his cousin, Ber-ber who went home with him.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
