Reflections of Life

Leroy Williams AKA, Wali Abdul Salaam was born in Paterson, New Jersey to Elouise James and the late William Williams on April 3, 1959. He grew up in Paterson, New Jersey and loved his city.

In 1999, he earned his GED from Manhattan Community College, of New York, NY. In 2001, he attained his Associates degree in Human Services from Manhattan College.

He loved helping those in crisis. This passion led him to work as an outreach worker, research assistant, case manager and lastly as a case coordinator.

Leroy was employed by National Church Residence for 6 years.

Helping people was his life passion. So much so, that he and his wife created a non-profit organization called Project Help. The non-profit organization he created has helped many seniors with their housing needs, job training for men returning home from prison and delivering meals to the disabled.

He received an Award from the Mayor and Councilman's office of Capitol Heights, Maryland for his outstanding work in the community. He also received the Outstanding Employee Award for his work with the seniors.

Leroy was preceded in death by his siblings, Betty, Essie Mae, Ronnie and Barry James and step-father, Tommy Adams.

Wali leaves behind a loving wife, Hanifah Salaam: his godson, Tahir Fisher: mother, Elouise James: a host of children and in laws who loved him dearly: brothers, Willie James, Duane James, Ondra James: one sister, Diane James: special nephews that he raised, Ricky, Tee James: and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

Words of Comfort

Prayer
By Brother Bilal Hakeem

“In the name of Allah, Most Gracious Most Merciful. Praise be to Allah the Cherisher and Sustainer of the worlds. Most Gracious, Most Merciful. Master of the Day of Judgment. You alone do we worship and your aid we seek. Show us the straight way, the way of those to whom you have given Your favour, and not of those who go astray.” Surah 1

I never can find the right words to say,
I just go with the flow each & everyday.
I never knew there could be love like this,
In a world full of cayos its always you I miss.
If there was one thing I could ask Allah for,
I would tell him that its you I adore.
My heart skips a beat when I hear the door,
because I know its you coming back for more.
I know we can withstand any kinda weather.
I will make dua for you and me,
that we can be in Jennah and always be.
I will love you forever, you have the key to my heart,
you unlocked it so now we can never part.
My eyes are full with tears, but I'm not going to cry,
I just cant wait for the day that I die. The sooner that happens, the sooner it will be. With Allah's mercy,
Just You and Me.
Your Loving Wife, Hanifah,
