Obituary

Audrey Rose Hill-Cotman-Laurence, departed this world on September 26, 2015. Audrey died at New York Presbyterian Hospital after a stay at the Isabella Nursing Home and Rehabilitation Center.

Audrey was born on October 20, 1929 in New Brunswick, New Jersey to George A. and Phyllis E. Hill. The youngest of five siblings, Audrey is preceded in death by brothers, William and Edward Hill, sisters, Martha Williams and Georgian Greene.

She attended public school in New Brunswick, NJ and Harlem, New York.

Audy, then "Nana" as she came to be known by her family and friends, met and married her first husband, Rudolph Cotman (deceased), from that union three sons were conceived, Rudolph Jr., David George and Edward Cotman. Together they joined and were baptized as Jehovah's Witnesses. Unfortunately that marriage was not to last. Audrey worked for the Choc Full of Nuts Corporation until its closure in the food preparation department and then the Marriott Corporation until her retirement. It was during those trips to work she met her second husband, Benjamin Laurence (deceased). They shared a very loving relationship and did many things together.

Audrey remained a devout servant to Jehovah with unwavering faith throughout her painful ordeal. Even sharing her faith with some of the staff at the nursing home.

Audrey leaves behind to cherish her memories: her sons, Rudolph (Radie, wife), George and Edward; nieces, Delores Gatlin, Beverly, Denise and Michelle (BJ); grandchildren, Keisha, Koquita, Amir, Durrell, Zakii, Koren and Jason; step grandson, Kumani; greatgrands, Alaina, Kiara, Zakira, Jade, Malachi, Riley, Kennedy and new born, Melodie; grandniece, Tiffany; and a host of relatives and friends.

Revelation 21:4, 5

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,
and death will be no more, neither will mourning
nor outcry nor pain be anymore.

The former things have passed away.

And the One seated on the throne said:

“Look! I am making all things new.” Also he says:

“Write, for these words are faithful and true.”
