Obituary

Herbert C. Shields was born November 19, 1924 in the Parish of Manchester, Jamaica.

After he graduated from Harry Chung High School, he moved to Kingston, Jamaica where he opened a cooking school for many years. In 1964, Herbert migrated to the United States of America. He was employed as a housekeeper at St. Cabrini Nursing Home in New York, where he was employed there for over 36 years.

On December 20, 1992, Herbert married the love of his life, Rose Shields.

Mr. Shields was a loving and caring person to everyone who knew him. He was very kind and generous. His love will forever be in our hearts and our memory.

Herbert entered into eternal rest on Thursday, September 24, 2015.

Herbert leaves to cherish and mourn their loss fond memories: his wife; Rose Shields, one daughter; Jean Shields, one adopted daughter; Diana Shields, and a host of nephews, grandchildren, great grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

Herbert was predeceased by his siblings, Ellen Simpson and Uriah Shields, two sisters and three brothers.

The Measure of a Man

*Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?
These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?
Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?
Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?
These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
