Obituary

Renee Dolores Smith was born to the late Charles and Dorothy Smith on November 9, 1943 in the Village of Harlem. Three siblings were also from this union: the late Charles Smith (Smitty), Seretese Smith and Michelle Smith.

Renee loved life from the start; she attended the New York City School System. Renee worked several temp positions before landing her job at CBS from where she retired to go on to assisting her husband with his political career. Although Renee had no children of her own, she raised three children from her marriage. Renee loved to read, sing and dance. Her strength was communicating with people, and she has touched so many with her wittiness and her zest for life...always sharing her life experiences leaving you with a lesson learned. Renee was part of the charm of Harlem; its parades, its Sunday dress, its soap box preachers and of course its Saturday Nights at the party on 146th Street.

In remembrance of Renee's strength her brother recalled a time when there was a building fire and as they tried to escape through the roof landing door to the next building, Ma Smith was having trouble opening the door and in the mist of it all Renee yelled out "Ma move out the way" and knocked the door off its hinges.

Although Renee showed such strength, Renee was such a kind-hearted, loving Sister, Aunt and Great Aunt, always giving...As Renee got older she made sure she gave us a call if we hadn't seen or heard from her in awhile, to let us know she was alright. Renee has given us so many great memories and will be missed immensely by her family, friends and loved ones...

Renee leaves her surviving siblings, Seretese and Michelle; Aunt and Uncle, Sister-in-Law, a host of Nieces, Nephews, Great Nieces, Great Nephews, God Daughter, Loving Cousins and more Friends than you could imagine.

Suddenly

*Sorry I had to Leave You So Suddenly Sorry I had to leave in a sudden kind of way;
didn't have time to call and say good-bye today.
I knew you would understand, because that's the way you are; don't worry about the distance because I'm not really that far. Don't wait up and please don't cry you didn't hear me say good-bye.*

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
