Reflections of Life

Louis Mack Jr. was born on April 21, 1942 in Florence, South Carolina to Daisy and Louis Mack, Sr. He was the first of eight children. His brothers Leon and Clyde Mack preceded him in death.

He received his formal education in the New York City public school system. He attended Samuel Gompers High School. Louis went on to join the United States Army and served four tours in the Vietnam War. He received his Master's Degree in Engineering while in service in the U.S Army. He achieved several honors and medals while employed with the government. He received a Korean Civilian Service Medal for his tour of duty, a Purple Heart for his tour in Vietnam and he attained the rank of E-7 Sergeant First class.

Louis dedicated fifty-four years of his life working for the United States Government. He worked in different capacities of the United States Military for twenty-five years before he went on to work for the United States Department of Defense, until his retirement last year.

Louis traveled the world. He was an avid reader who was very passionate about education, world history and politics. He loved going to church and reading his bible. He loved working on his antic car, and retelling old war stories to his family and friends. Louis was a dedicated husband, loving father, outstanding brother and uncle, and a devoted friend.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.
