Obituary

Cynthia Ann Coleman was born on April 26th, 1965 in East Orange, NJ to James Coleman and Judy Williams.

As a kid, Cynthia grew up in Little City and was a part of a dance group called Black Expressions. She attended East Orange High School.

Cynthia later went on and married, Robert Charles Hicks, and gave birth to two children, Nicole Yvonne Hicks, and Robert James Hicks Jr.

Cynthia worked for a small airplane company in the early 90's and then went to work for King's Supermarket where she was the cashier, florist, bookkeeper, and ending as the customer service manager, after she worked various customer service jobs.

Cynthia was a very outgoing person, who loved to have fun. Her hobbies were bowling, playing pool, reading, and writing, solving crossword puzzles, traveling, listening to music, cooking, and dancing. In the summer her favorite thing to do was go to Seaside Heights, to eat and play the games. Being around family was also something she enjoyed; she loved when the Holidays came around because she knew we would all be together again to make new memories.

Cynthia Coleman leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Nicole Hicks and her son, Robert Hicks Jr. She also leaves behind three sisters and two brothers, Debbie Banks, Gail Sackey, Cheryl Coleman, Gregory Coleman, and Jay Coleman, and her brother-in-law, Edward Sackey; and also a host of nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden,
and found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you, and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
