Obituary

Jacquelin Alise Howard was born in Newark, NJ on September 10, 1943 to the late Harvey Howard Sr. and the late Elgie L. Howard.

Jacquelin established many friendships through her life and career path. She was also educated in the Newark Public School System. Jacquelin attended Essex County College where she obtained a degree in social services. Jacquelin applied her degree by working for the joint connection. With this career she helped many families with continuous visitation with love ones in correctional facilities. In realizing she loved helping people she continued her career by working for Northern State Correctional Facility in New Jersey. Holding the title of a correctional officer for thirteen years until she became retired.

Outside of work, Jacquelin was dedicated to her son, grandchildren, friends and family. Her hobbies were home decorating, taking care of plants and music. On occasions you would find her in the kitchen cooking up something wonderful.

Jacquelin Alise Howard departed this life on October 13, 2015 and she is predeceased by her mother and father, Harvey Howard Sr. and Elgie L. Howard. Also four brothers, Harvey Howard Jr., Leroy Howard, Tony Howard and Bernard Howard.

Jacquelin leaves to cherish her memory: One son, Maurice Howard; five grandchildren, Tanya, Manny, Jaunita, Quadasha and Znariah; three great grandchildren, Shakur, Makayla and Aquil; three sisters, Jean Howard Gibson (NJ), Rosalind Howard Pruett (NJ) and Yvonne McKenzie (Florida); three brothers, John Howard, James (bro) Howard and Jeffrey Howard; along with a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
