Obituary

Edwardo A. Pickering (also known as Eddie, Mr. Ed and Wardo) was born on February 6, 1926 to the late Agatha K. Hennessy and Edwardo Pickering in Charlotte Amalie, USVI. He attended Lincoln High School in St. Thomas.

During Edwardo's younger years he loved sports, primarily baseball. After leaving St. Thomas sport scouts ventured to the Caribbean. He believed that if he had stayed a little longer in St. Thomas he might have been chosen to go pro. He grew up around the field with three sisters the late Elma Deltura, Elsa Deltura and Ilva Michael.

He left St. Thomas in the 40's by plane, not on a Banana boat as he often stated. While in New York his love for baseball led him to join a baseball club. He later had two children, Doris Pickering of College Park, Georgia and Edward (Eddie) Pickering of New York, New York; two grandchildren, the late Latonya C. Brown and Eddie Sinceno; one great grandson, Eddie Sinceno; nieces, Joyce Clark and Delphine (Janet) Lewis; and many other nieces and nephews.

Edwardo had a great interest in current events, history and sports. It has been said that Edwardo was misunderstood and what he said was taken personally. He was just an opinionated man. Edwardo also enjoyed dining out at his favorite eatery, Dallas BBQ's and shopping. Whenever he dined out with someone you can count on him picking up the tab.

He retired from Klausner Plumbing Supply in 1978. He will be missed by a host of family members and friends.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.*

Acknowledgement

kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
