Obituary

On Sunday, October 18, 2015, our dearest Chanda Robinson at the age of 38, went home peacefully to be with the Lord.

Chanda was born to Denise Mitchell and Robert L. Robinson III on May 5, 1977. Always a conscientious student, she was educated at Jane Adams High School and later attended The College of New Rochelle where she graduated with her BA.

She was loved by her peers and patients at Columbia Presbyterian and Mt. Sinai Hospitals, and was respected for being a team player and a diligent, caring worker.

Chanda possessed a beautiful, infectious smile, and a “tell it like it is” attitude. If Ms. Robinson liked you, you knew it; and if she didn’t like you, you knew that too.

She lived life to the fullest and was known for her love of cooking, great sense of humor, and her fighting spirit. Chanda’s greatest joy came from food shopping and tasting, watching Food Network with her daughter, Emari; hanging out with her son, Elijah; and being in the company of her friends and neighbors.

She will always be remembered as a great listener, a confidante, and making the people in her life feel special and unique.

Chanda leaves behind: her mother, Denise Mitchell; son, Elijah Robinson; daughter, Emari Jackson; sisters, Jasmine Mitchell, Dana Caldwell, Nikki Robinson-Darby and Donise McFall; brothers, Jose Torres and Billy Caldwell; aunt, Helen M. Verdier (Dolly); three nieces; two nephews; her godmother, Tanya Poles; and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

She was predeceased by her father, Robert L. Robinson III; grandmother, Peggy Mitchell, and grandfather, Floyd Mitchell.

She will be missed as a loving Daughter, devoted Mother, great Sister, wonderful God Daughter, and Best Friend to many.

Chanda lived a life of ultimate love, and leaves a bountiful legacy for all who had the privilege to meet her. We praise God that she came to know and love the Lord. We will see her again in Glory.
