Obituary

James A. Floyd, Jr. was born to the late James A. Floyd, Sr. and Ruby Summers on March 18, 1947 in New York City, New York.

James was born and raised in New York City. He matriculated through the New York City School system. Upon completion of high school, he became gainfully employed at The St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital until retirement after 40 years of service. As a devoted caregiver, a great deal of time was given to his patients, helping them to recover.

James, affectionately known as “Floyd” loved life and everything about it. He loved vacationing, music, dancing, loving his children and working with colleagues.

As a devoted family man, husband and father, he leaves to mourn: his wife, Vanessa Sanders Floyd; daughters, Meagan A. Floyd and Nyeila M. Floyd; one son, Dayon L. Floyd, all living in New York City. He also leaves: two granddaughters, Briana and Annabel Floyd; mother-in-law, Catherine Sanders; one sister-in-law, Leontyne B. Sanders, all living in New York City; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
