Reflections of Life

Anna Lee Baker Rouse was born November 15, 1922 in Hartsville, South Carolina to the late William Baker and Lugenia Poole Baker. She resided in Darlington, SC before relocating to East Orange, NJ in 1944.

She was formerly employed by the Otis Elevator Company (formerly in Harrison, NJ) for 25 years before retirement. She was member of the Greater Mount Calvary Church of Christ of Paterson, NJ, where her husband, Bishop Eugene Rouse was the pastor, and where she served as the First Lady and church pianist. She was Mother Superior of the church, and Supervisor of the Women's Department. She was a member of the Inter-Denominational Women's Conference, where the late Rev. Dr. Allene Gilmore was the founder.

Her high-end fashions and unique style, caught the attention of many people. She was a trendsetter, who loved the Lord with all her heart. Whenever you would see her, you also would the Bishop, maybe even holding hands.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Barbara Gene Bell; a brother, Larry Baker; and her parents, William and Lugenia Baker.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her husband of 75 years, Bishop Eugene Rouse; one son, Sean Eugene Rouse; five grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
