

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

A sepia-toned portrait of a man with a mustache, wearing a suit, tie, and a fedora hat. He is smiling slightly and looking towards the camera. The background is a soft, out-of-focus indoor setting with a lamp visible on the right.

OBITUARY

Mario Ross was born in Camden, South Carolina. He was one of seven children born to the late John Ross and Bella Ross.

He was educated in the Jackson County Public School system. After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the US Navy. He was honorably discharged and came to live in New York City. He was employed with the New York City Transit Authority as a motorman for thirty-one years.

Mario loved cars, every time you saw him he was in a different car. Mario was a dedicated and humble person. He loved the Lord.

He leaves to cherish his memory: best friend, Theresa Brown.

INTERMENT

*Forest Green Memorial Park
Morganville, New Jersey*

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
