Reflections of Life

David Ware, was born in Bessemer, Alabama on December 8, 1936 to the late Samuel and Maggie Ware.

David started his education at the 22nd St Elementary School, and later finished his education at Dunbar High School in Bessemer, Alabama.

David worked at 28th Street Service station in Bessemer, Ala. before coming to NY as a young man. David worked with the Housing in Brooklyn, NY and later went to work with the Housing Police, also in Brooklyn, NY.

On November 8, 1956, David married the love of his life, Mary Brown.

David loved hanging out in the parking lot with his friends on Williams and Cozine St in Brooklyn, if you wanted to find him he was either in the parking lot drinking, gambling or just talking with his friends or visiting one of his family members, he loved to have a good time.

David leaves to cherish his memories, 5 children; David Ware, Jr; Donald Ware; Marilyn Harper; Michelle Ware and Cynthia McGhee. He also leaves 14 grandchildren, Khalilah Ware; Tiana Harper; Nakiyah Boatwright; Tina Harper; Aliyyah Simmons; Tawanna Wade; Sharonda Wade; Shante McGhee; Jenaya Wade; Malik Wade; Karima McGhee; Talisa Wade; Hanif Ware; Kayla Burts and he is predeceased by his Grandson/ transportation buddy Glenn Wade Jr; 17 Great-Grandchildren. David also leaves behind his Twin Brother Eddie Ware; his brother Harold Ware; sister Annie Lois Avery; sister-in-law Martha Ware and is predeceased by 2 sisters and 2 brothers. He also leaves to cherish his memories; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and lots of friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
