Reflections of Life

“In my father’s house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you.”

Tracey Booker was born November 30, 1970 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Freddie Lee Booker and Etta Booker-Burgess.

Tracey attended the Newark Public Schools where she followed in the footsteps of her older siblings.

Tracey was funny, lovable, compassionate and free spirited. She would do anything for her family. She loved children and they loved her back. Tracey loved her music and could dance anybody under the table. She also loved playing cards and watching wrestling with her nephews.

Tracey departed this life suddenly on Tuesday, October 20, 2015 in Atlantic City, New Jersey. She was preceded in death by her maternal father, Freddie Lee Booker and maternal grandfather, Henry Thomas Cheatham.

She leaves to cherish her memory: mother, Henrietta Booker-Burgess; father, Anthony Burgess; grandmother, Nether Cheatham; two sisters, Michelle Booker and Bridget Cheatham; three brothers, Freddie Booker (Renee Booker), Anthony Burgess Jr., Dana Burgess; four nephews, Al-Tariq White, Mekhi Jones, Daylan Burgess, Davaughn Booker; five nieces Chenise Burgess, Dana Burgess, Natalia Booker, Nikea Booker, Destiny Booker; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

In Loving Memory

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still aches with sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.*
