Just for "CC"

*His mission finished, his reward ahead
For the last time
he bowed his head
Years will come,
years will go
But never a better man will we know.*

*Sometimes it's hard to understand why some things have to be;
But in His wisdom, God has planned beyond our power to see.
So looking back in tenderness
along the road we trod.
We cherished the years
we had with you
And leave the rest to God.*

*Lovingly Submitted,
The Family*

Reflections of Life

*“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith” II Timothy 4:7*

Clinton Dwyer was the youngest of 6 children born to the late Charlie and Lucille Gaymon Dwyer. He was born in Columbia, South Carolina on November 21, 1955. Clinton at a young age along with his family migrated to Sumter, S.C where he continued his early childhood education, including attending Sumter High School. God in His infinite wisdom transitioned Clinton to the next realm of life on Wednesday, October 21, 2015.

At an early age he grew up under The Fire Baptize Pentecostal Church in Sumter, SC. Later years by the age of 17 he migrated to Passaic, New Jersey to live with his sister Ruby Livingston and her family. During that time his first job was working at the Uniroyal Tire Company. As a hobby, he was fascinated with the art of photography, and loved taking pictures not only of his own family, but weddings, birthdays and other family gatherings and was really good at it. Later, Clinton found his true passion for cutting hair as an amateur barber, after which he went on to receive a certificate from the State of New Jersey. He loved the passion for cutting hair and meeting all that came in the Uptown Barber Association in Englewood where he was employed for over twenty years. He was well known as one the best barber in the Paterson area to all by the nickname “CC”. Clinton later became a proud father to his oldest daughter Niky and later a son, Quwaice. He enjoyed spending his time with his children and loved them very much and was proud of them, and also was a proud grandfather to grandsons Issaic, Quwaice Jr, and granddaughter Xiyah. Clinton later found his true love when he met and married Hope McFadden on July 25, 2009. They enjoyed doing things together such as Praising God, traveling, going out to dinners, and shopping. He truly enjoyed life to the fullest, and loved all of his family very much.

Clinton continued his Christian walk, and became a member of the Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Englewood, New Jersey where he served on the Men's Usher Board. He loved to serve and loved his Mount Calvary family where he worshiped there with his loving wife Hope and their family.

Clinton was preceded in death by his loving mother and father; Charlie (Booster) and Lucille, his brothers, Charlie Jeff, Herbert, and Joseph, his father-in-law, Ruben McFadden.

He leaves to cherish loving memories: his loving wife, Hope; his loving daughters, Niky and Aja; his son, Quwaice; 3 grandchildren, Issaic, Quwaice, Jr. and Xiyah; his loving sisters, MaryAnn Dwyer Pierce (Landover, MD), and Ruby Livingston (Columbia, SC); Sisters-in-law, Emily, Beulah and Evelyn all of (Pittsburg, PA), Valerie McFadden (Irvington, NJ), Roberta Woods (Bloomfield, NJ) and Cecelia Showers (Memphis, TN); brothers-in-law, Quasheen McFadden (Paterson, NJ), Percell Livingston (Columbia, SC), Samuel Cunningham (Grenada, MS) and Daniel Burgess (Paterson, NJ); two aunts, Daisy Gaymon (Sumter, SC) and Marie Murray (Sumter, SC); one uncle, Porter Gaymon (Sumter, SC); childhood best friends, Jared Peterson (Englewood, NJ), Joe Chavis (Englewood, NJ), Robert McEntyre (Paterson, NJ), Roger Solomon (Sumter, SC) and Rev. In Appreciation

The Family of Clinton Dywer would like to express our most sincere and heartfelt Thank You. Perhaps you said a silent prayer that God might see us through. Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we shall always be grateful and we thank you so much, whatever the part.
