Obituary

On the morning of October 23, 2015 the angel death visited James Gusby Sr., and freed him from life struggles. James Gusby was born December 12, 1947 to the late Robert Gusby Sr., and Carrie L. Gusby.

He received his education at Sol. C Johnson High School of Thunderbolt, GA. In his early years, he attended Second Evergreen Baptist Church of Savannah, GA. He started work in 1969 at PSE&G in East Orange, NJ for 35 years until he retired. He was a welder for most of his career, then transitioned into paving inspection he was rated one of the top paving inspector in the states. He was so great at what he did he was called to go to other districts to help them pave. Still to this day that use its work as a model for upcoming paving inspector.

James was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Sharon Gusby in 1980. From this union they had 4 children, James Gusby Jr., Jamee Michelle Gusby from Irvington, NJ, Yolanda (Stevie) Brown of Ozark, Alabama and Richard (Monique) Perry, 5 grandchildren, Ijahna, Noami Gusby, Natahjay Sharon Gusby, James Gusby III and a host of other grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He leaves to cherish memories of his siblings, the late Ethel Harris (Charles) the late Jesse Gusby (Tomasina) Savannah; his brother, Robert Gusby Jr., (Kiwako) of Texas; nieces, Nephews, and a host of great nieces and nephews; sister-in-law, Linda P. McMillian (John) of Newark, NJ; brother-in-law, David James (Lacreshia) of Newark, NJ; the late Gaylord James (Francine) of Maryland, and a host of other relatives and friends and two very special friends, Curtis Salley and Krystal Freshley.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
