Reflections of Life

On October 14, 2015, Ahmed Taylor of East Islip, New York was called home and entered into eternal rest. Ahmed was born on July 12, 1971 to the late Levi and Ruth Taylor in Newark.

Ahmed attended Hillside High School. He worked at Wakefern.

Ahmed was a heartfelt individual with a lot of aspirations. He was generous and a loving person.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Levi and Ruth Taylor and sisters, Tyran Black-Andrews and Terry Ann Black.

Ahmed leaves to cherish his memory: aunts, Dolores Mack and Loretta Black; uncle, Lamar Black; great aunt, Doris Bowers; great uncles, Amos and Ernest Black; sister, Stacey Taylor-Singleton; brothers, Levi and Bruce Taylor; brother-in-law, Michael Andrews; nieces, Kiahna and Karima; nephews, Keion and Sami; as well as a host of cousins, friends and family.

Although Ahmed Taylor is physically gone
His memory lingers on
And he is no further away from you
Than a portrait, picture and fond memories too

Death is not an ending
But the beginning
The flowering of the immortal soul
Has taken hold

Like the metamorphous of a caterpillar
Turning into a beautiful butterfly
Ahmed Taylor has taken flight
And now lived beyond the sky

He now stands at the right side
Of no one greater
Than our Almighty Creator
“Rest In Peace, Ahmed Taylor” until we once again meet
