The Obituary

Miriam Ambroziné Campbell, the daughter of the late Wilfred and Estherella Sheriffe, was born on September 20, 1921 in the Parish of St. Mary, Jamaica, West Indies. Her other family members were the late brothers, Leopold, Sydney, Constantine and Everard and sisters, Dutrice and Sylvia.

As she was developing into God's given character, Miriam Campbell accepted the Lord Jesus Christ for her personal Saviour. By this time, she had moved to Kingston, Jamaica, where she was a member of the Church of the First Born. One of her fellow congregants was an up and coming minister. The courtship culminated in 1950, when she was united in marriage with (Bishop) Wilbert James Campbell. They migrated to England five years later. Her husband pastored the Model Church of God in London, England; yet, she was the soul of the vibrant church.

In 1967, Miriam Campbell and her husband settled in the United States. Her trade and primary occupation was dressmaking. With these skills, she seamlessly applied her domestic duties in the home. Outside of employment, she loved to dissect national and world issues. She had long ago earned her stripes of life's experiences. However, in 1984, she attained her secondary education through the General Equivalency Diploma program from Newark Evening High, Newark, New Jersey. Her diligence was rewarded, as she was bestowed with the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Award. On life's winding road, she was well-equipped with fortitude and steadfastness; for in 1995, the Lord called her husband home, after forty-five years of marriage. Whether it was for family or her church, Praise Temple Church of God, and the connections with other congregations, she has "Well Done, Thou Good Faithful Servant".

Among those left to cherish the precious memories are: her daughter, Gloria Kerr; three granddaughters, Jacqueline Andrews, Paulette Kerr and Elaine Buchanan and her husband, Allan; five great grandsons; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Echoes From Eternity

*A gentle touch to soothe the soul
That knowing smile for unspoken words
For reassurance or just because
An inner strength that wrapped the cover
Girded with wisdom and determination
There was a fashion for flair, to be sure
Elegantly draped in grace and goodness
Bonded with pure love, above all
A spirit that could never age or quell
Soaring from this world's cares and troubles
Into the tender embrace of her Creator
Rested, refreshed and always rejoicing
At peace now with her Lord.*

By The Family

*"For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing?
Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming?
For you are our glory and joy."*

1 Thessalonians 2:19-20
