Obituary

God in His infinite wisdom decided to call home Almon R. Taylor, Sr., husband, father, grandfather, uncle and friend, 68 of Bloomfield, NJ on Tuesday, October 27, 2015.

Almon R. Taylor was born on July 2, 1947 in Harlem, NY to Lorraine E. (Kearney) Taylor and Grant Taylor. “Butch” or “Al” as he was lovingly called graduated from East Orange High School in 1966 and Studied Management at Upsala College in East Orange, NJ.

Al retired from FedEx in 2013 as a checker sorter, on the safety committee and mentored the new hires. He was on various bowling leagues to which he made many friends who became family. He loved to entertain with his great personality and often gave advice with elaborate stories.

Al always had a great sense of humor with his infectious smile with laughter. Daddy’o as we called him always put family first and took the time to make everyone he came across feel special and very easy to talk to. But when it came to playing any type of cards especially spades with the trash talking he was not your friend. “King in Spades” will forever be his title...

Al was predeceased by his mother, Lorraine E. (Kearney) Taylor, his sister, Vivian (Kearney) Mack and his two daughters, Kim and Iris Taylor.

He is survived by: his loving wife, Norma M. Taylor; children, Renee P. Taylor, Almon Taylor, Jr. (Sebrina), Terri Taylor Cruz (Pedro), Leighton M. Antonio and Garfield T. Antonio (Zeila); thirteen grandchildren; two great grandchildren, five sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces and nephews.

As Daddy’o would say, “Family Love”.

Just One Day

If I could come back for just one day
I know exactly what I would say
To my family and friends and those who I loved
As a message from God who speaks from above.

I would say it's okay to be sad for awhile
But what I really want most is to see your smile,
And for you to go on and live once again -
Allowing the Lord to comfort your pain.

I know that you loved me with all of your heart
And that none of you wanted for me to depart.
I don't quite understand it myself
But I know you'll get by with a little help.

Yes, I would say to be sad for a day
And to do what you need to do.
And then lift up your eyes
to the wonder of the sky
And know that I loved you too.
