Obituary

Darlene Henry was born in Bronx, New York on June 30th, 1961 to Margaret McRae and Edward McRae, and was one of five children. She graduated from Iona College as a Licensed Professional Nurse; caring for people was her passion and her gift.

Darlene married Michael Henry on March 21, 1985 and they had four children. She dedicated herself to her family and ensured that her children were safe and raised in a loving home that was filled with memories and laughter. Darlene extended her care and opened her home to children. She was a foster parent for 15 years, welcoming over 50 children in those years. She provided the same genuine love, care, and guidance as she did with her own.

Anyone that had the pleasure to encounter Darlene would know just how genuine, kind, and caring she was. She was the light of her family, the backbone, and the foundation.

She is survived by her husband, Michael and her children, Tyline, Vance, Michael, and Lamar. As well as her father, Edward McRae and siblings, Beatrice, Edward Jr., Denise, and Alton. She also leaves behind uncles, aunts, cousins and a host of nieces and nephews.

Darlene Henry, died at the age of 54 on October 27, 2015. Although she is not physically here, her memory, smile and laugh will always be remembered and cherished. We love you forever and always.

Forever In Your Heart

Feel no guilt in laughter,
She knows how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile
That she is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever
She would not want you to.
She'd hope that you could carry on
The way you always do.
So talk about the good times
And the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together,
All the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you,
A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture
A time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly
As though she was still here,
And fills you with the feelings
That say she's always near.
For if you keep those moments,
You will never be apart
And they will live forever
Safely locked within your heart.
