Obituary

It was a warm and sunny day in Birmingham, Alabama on July 7, 1945 when the late Mary Lee Williams and Pearlie Hendricks, Sr. were blessed with their first born and only son, Pearlie Hendricks, Jr.

Pearlie, affectionately called “Junior” by family and friends, was educated in the Birmingham school system.

After high school he moved to Chicago, Illinois. In 1965, he came to New York to attend Barber School. There he met and married Theresita Jones in 1967. From this union they were blessed with two children, Tracy Hendricks Collins and Jasper Hendricks. The marriage ended in divorce.

In 1979, Pearlie met and married Carol Moses. This union was also blessed with two children, Jermaine Hendricks and Michelle Hendricks Bass.

Pearlie was known on 8th Avenue as an excellent barber. He was well loved and cut hair for two and three generations of customers. He enjoyed his work, playing golf, bowling, playing cards and traveling. He also loved to drive his cars.

Pearlie’s spirit has gone on to join his parents, grandmother, aunts and nephews.

He leaves to mourn and cherish fond memories: his wife, Carol Hendricks; two sons, Jasper Hendricks of Alexandria, VA and Jermaine Hendricks of Johnstown, NY; two daughters, Tracy Hendricks Collins of Seattle, WA and Michelle Hendricks Bass of Bronx, NY; five grandchildren, Arielle, Rachel and Krystianne Collins, Gianna Hendricks and Justice Bass; one great grandson, Kaden Jefferson; two sisters, Betty Wiggins of Buffalo, NY and Carrie Morris of Chicago, Il; one aunt, Minnie Gray of Chicago, Il; two daughters-in-law, Vanessa Hendricks and Jenell Hendricks; two sons-in-law, Christopher Collins and Jay Bass; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,*

*Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
